FIRE VICTIM TRUSTEE'S OBJECTION
TO LETTER REQUEST OF AARA VIOLA
PEDERSEN TO DEEM LATE PROOF OF CLAIM TIMELY FOR THE PURPOSE OF ADMINISTRATION BY THE FIRE
VICTIM TRUST

[Relates to Docket Number 13404]

Hearing Date: January 25, 2023
Hearing Time: 10:00 a.m.

Place: Hearing will be conducted telephonically or by video

1 Cathy Yanni, in her capacity as the Trustee (the “Trustee”) of the Fire Victim Trust
2 (“Trust”), by and through her undersigned counsel, hereby submits this objection to the letter
3 request of Aara Viola Pedersen (“Movant”) filed on January 3, 2023 [Dkt. 13404] (the “Pedersen
4 Letter”). In support of this Objection, the Trustee respectfully states as follows:

5 PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

6 The Pedersen Letter seeks to have proof of claim 109843 (the “Proof of Claim”), filed on
7 December 28, 2022, deemed timely for the purpose of administration by the Trust with no mention
8 of the impact such relief might have on the Fire Victims who largely filed their proofs of claim 9 more than three years before Movant. As Movant does not provide any basis for a finding of 10 excusable neglect for the extremely long delay in filing the Proof of Claim, the Court should deny
11 the relief requested in the Pedersen Letter for the reasons cited in the Court’s December 21, 2022
12 Amended Order Denying Motions to Allow Late Claims [Docket No. 13377] (the “Late Claim 13 Order”).

14 RELEVANT BACKGROUND

15 1. On January 29, 2019, PG&E Corporation and Pacific Gas and Electric Company, as 16 debtors and debtors in possession (together, the “Debtors”), commenced with the Court voluntary
17 cases under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (the “Chapter 11 Cases”). The Debtors filed the 18 Chapter 11 Cases to address the billions of dollars of damage and loss relating to the devastating
19 2015, 2017 and 2018 California fires and to provide compensation to wildfire victims.

20 2. On March 14, 2019, the Debtors filed their schedules of assets and liabilities. By 21 Order dated July 1, 2019, the Court established October 21, 2019 (the “Bar Date”) as the last date
22 to file proofs of claim in the Chapter 11 Cases [Docket No. 2806]. The majority of the 82,692
23 timely filed Fire Victim Claims were filed before the Bar Date. By Order dated November 11, 24 2019, the Court extended the Bar Date to December 31, 2019 (the “Extended Bar Date”) for 25 unfiled, non-governmental Fire Claimants [Docket No. 4672].

26 3. As a result of the Court’s careful consideration of this issue and the thoughtful
27 manner in which the Debtors redoubled their efforts to reach additional Fire Victims, more than 28 82,000 claimants, some of whom suffered unfathomable losses, filed their claims in a timely

1 manner. This number includes in excess of 1,700 claimants who submitted claims substantially
2 similar to those asserted in the Proof of Claim.

3 OBJECTION

4 4. As this Court has recognized, claimants who file late proofs of claim bear “the 5 burden of presenting facts demonstrating excusable neglect.” In re Pacific Gas & Elec. Co., 311
6 B.R. 84, 89 (2004) (citing Key Bar Invs., Inc. v. Cahn (In re Cahn), 188 B.R. 627 (9th Cir. BAP
7 1995)). The Pedersen Letter does not provide any explanation for Movant waiting just under three 8 years after the Extended Bar Date to file the Proof of Claim.

9 5. In Pioneer the Supreme Court applied the majority of what was then the Ninth
10 Circuit test for determining whether a failure to timely file a proof of claim was due to excusable
11 neglect: (1) whether granting the delay will prejudice the debtor; (2) the length of the delay and its 12 impact on efficient court administration; (3) whether the delay was beyond the reasonable control
13 of the person whose duty it was to perform; and (4) whether the creditor acted in good faith. Id.,
14 507 U.S. at 395, 113 S. Ct. at 1498.

15 6. The first consideration in determining whether a late claim filing was the result of 16 “excusable neglect” under Pioneer is the danger of prejudice to the debtor. This factor is irrelevant
17 in the present case with respect to the Debtors because the Trust has taken the place of the Debtors
18 with respect to Fire Victim Claims. As noted in the Late Claim Order, when considered together
19 with all of the Fire Victim Claims being administered by the Trust “the impact [of adding
20 additional late claims to the Trust] on administration is more than de minimis and would prejudice
21 the FVT.” Late Claim Order at 6:14-15.

22 7. The second consideration under Pioneer is the length of delay and its potential
23 impact on judicial proceedings. The Proof of Claim was filed 1,093 days after the Extended Bar
24 Date – more than three years after others with similar claims filed proofs of claim. As noted above, 25 the Trust has a limited fund from which to pay all Fire Victim Claims. As such, the Trust cannot
26 finally determine how much it can pay on account of any Fire Victim Claim until it adjudicates
27 every Fire Victim Claim. Before the Trust can begin to adjudicate a claim, the claimant must 28 submit all necessary documentation to the Trust.

1           8.       The continued addition of claims to the Fire Victim Trust prevents the Trust from
2 allocating its limited funds and further extends the time that claimants who timely filed their Fire
3 Victim Claims must wait for final payments, thus delaying the administration of Fire Victim
4 Claims and prejudicing those who hold timely filed Fire Victim Claims with delay. The extreme
5 length of Movant's delay and the impact of this three-year delay on the final payment of timely
6 filed Fire Victim Claims weighs heavily against deeming the Proof of Claim timely.

7           9.       The third Pioneer factor, whether the delay was beyond the late claimant's control,
8 also weighs against granting the relief requested by Movant. The Pedersen Letter states that
9 Movant did not file earlier because she thought that their particular claims were not compensable.
10 As the Late Claim Order notes, "Due process does not require the awareness of the type of claim
11 that might have been filed." Late Claim Order at 7:3-4. Nothing in the Pedersen Letter provides a
12 basis for finding that Movant was unable to file the Proof of Claim before the Extended Bar Date
13 for any reason beyond her control.

14          10.      While the Trustee does not believe that Movant lacks the good faith that comprises
15 the final consideration listed by the Pioneer court, Movant fails to provide any justification for the 16 late filing. There are no exceptional circumstances that warrant adding the Proof of Claim to the 17 Trust for administration with the tens of thousands of timely Fire Victim Claims.

18          11.      In addition, as is evidenced by overwhelming number of late claim motions filed
19 within December alone, as well as the continuing filing of proofs of claim, allowing the Proof of 20 Claim to be deemed timely filed at this stage would encourage other latecomers to file similar
21 motions. Such a result would be grossly inequitable to those holding timely filed Fire Victim
22 Claims, who have been waiting years for closure that cannot come until the Trust is able to 23 administer the last Fire Victim Claim.

24          12.      Movant therefore fails to meet the standard for establishing "excusable neglect" for 25 filing the Proof of Claim nearly three years after the Extended Bar Date. The relief requested in the 26 Pedersen Letter should be denied.

27       ///

28       ///

1 CONCLUSION

2 For the foregoing reasons, the Trustee respectfully requests that this Court deny the relief
3 requested in the Pedersen Letter and grant such other and further relief as may be just.
